Which Brands Him Traitor

Former Prime Minister Says Socialism Marks Growth of Society, Not Uprising of One Class; Drop Name of Socialists for Labor Party

London, Aug. 16.—The Communist Party of Great Britain has in its latest issue a section of the Daily Worker which has J. Ramsay MacDonald for its mentor.

English Socialists 10 years ago. In the heyday of the Social Democratic League used to talk of revolution to bring about the establishment of a dictatorship of the proletariat. That has passed with the establishment of an official and independent labor party combining Socialists and the Trade Unions. Among English Socialists in all of the forty years of their organized activity, complete revolution has never existed as to the method of establishing the Socialist State. The British Socialists, which came into being at the same time as the Social Democratic League, and which still exists as the fountain head of mild and moderate Socialists, thought and the party, always contended that Socialism is inevitable, but that it was not to be hurried along by violence or the overthrow of the existing Monarchical system.

Unions Exposed
British trade unions were exposed to the Communists and Socialist teachings as far back as the time of Karl Marx and his Manifesto of the Communist Party in 1847, but in the early days of socialism was not critical and the British workman had little interest in Marx's combing of politics and economics.

Socialism made its headway within the trade unions until the London dock strike thirty years ago. As a result of this helped the dockers organize and organize their strike and for the first time Socialism became to be regarded as a labor movement. Although J. Ramsay MacDonald had been a candidate for Parliament fifteen years before the first separate Socialist labor party was established in 1900, it was not until 1903 that the Independent Labor Party was formed as an official party distinct from the Parliamentary Labor Party headed by Ramsay Mac-Donald. A year later in 1904 the Independent Labor Congress adopted a resolution declaring in favor of "collaboration with the Liberal Party on all political issues, and the Socialists and the Trade Unions."

In 1906 the Independent Labor Party and the Trade Union Congress joined to put a combined ticket in the fight for the Parliamentary election. A third year later the combined ticket was elected to the House of Commons. A year later in 1909 the Independent Labor Party was elected to the House of Commons. In 1910 the

Bacon and A. Stuhl Hit Home Runs in Fourth Round. Main Holds Visitors to Three Hits, Local Team Pounds Two Bucyrus Hurlers Freely

IN the years to come when your son or grandson returns home from the ball game and insists on telling you how the home team put up a great finish to win, let him spin out his story. When he has finished his story, then you can open up with the narrative about the great batting rally put on by the Marion Athletics on a summer Sunday afternoon in the year 1926 in their game with Bucyrus, champions of the New York Central League.

Tell him how the situation opened from the Marion club's stand point when the Bucyrus club shoved across ten runs in the fourth inning, to lead the home team. How Francis Bacon, manager of the Athletics, cut the two-run lead in the fifth by leading off in the last half of the fourth with a home run over the left field fence, and how the Athletics, who had been looking like they were to be in the sixth inning.

Stage Big Rally Then when you have an interest centered on a play, tell him how the Athletics, once back in the lead, pushed across ten runs in the sixth inning, to lead the home team. How Francis Bacon, manager of the Athletics, cut the two-run lead in the fifth by leading off in the last half of the fourth with a home run over the left field fence, and how the Athletics, who had been looking like they were to be in the sixth inning.

DONALDSON GOES TO NEWARK CLUB

Rex Donaldson, shortstop of the Marion Athletics, left Saturday night for a try out with the New York club of the International League.

Donaldson's work with the Athletics and also with the Bucyrus team in the New York Central League has been watched by scouts of the Newark club for several weeks. He received word Saturday that the Athletics were to report for a try out.

Baron Hits Homer

Grain and determined Manager Bacon, on leading off in the last half of the fourth inning, hit a home run, which was the fourth of the Athletics in the game. Bacon's circuit smash was the clincher, which turned the tide in favor of the Athletics. The ball, which was hit by Bacon, was followed by a home run by Stuhl, which was the fifth of the Athletics in the game.

Fistic Committee Again Tackles License Question

BY DAVIS J. WASH. NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The state's attorney general, a prominent lawyer and politician who intends to be prominent until he is buried, and two military gentlemen who have become prominent only through the exigencies of the past week, were in the throes of pondering thought today as to the question of a license or none for our heavyweight champion pugilist, perhaps for the last time.

As to that, Colonel J. Phelan, chairman of the license committee, could not say when approached on the subject this morning.

He intimated that he intended to approach the committee meeting with an open mind but an excellent tip was to bring your own argument for the run around. This popular indoor pastime was greatly enjoyed last week when Colonel Phelan and his conferees declined to license Dempsey for the Tonney meeting because he had signed a contract for the engagement at the same time, warning him that he would not be allowed to sign a contract until he got a license. However, the four Marx brothers failed to attend the meeting, proving that even the best of us will make mistakes.

His Mind Is Open Colonel Phelan still was in excellent voice this morning. "My mind is open," he said, "I am not merely stubborn about this thing but am determined to see that the rules are carried out. When they prove to me that everything is shipshape they will get their license."

Perhaps most important of all, public utility has placed adequate power at the elbow of the American workman, which more than anything else, has enabled him to establish and maintain his present high standard of living, with home, garden, telephone, car, electricity, and even motor car, all in competition with low paid foreign labor.
